

More Spring Wash Goods!

Another Special Showing for Saturday.

It's easy to talk Spring Wash Goods and we can't help being enthusiastic with such beautiful goods before us. It may seem early to buy Spring Wash Goods but we will say this that as successful as were our sales last February on these lines, February of this year promises to be as good as any March or April in previous years. Why? We have the goods. Saturday we want you should come in; we have a lot more new things and shall give special attention to the showing of the New Wash Goods for spring. Please consider yourself invited.

Local 481, C. J. of A., will hold its annual celebration, February 19, in Woodman's hall. Old-fashioned dancing will be indulged in. A general invitation is extended to all.

The Y. P. A. of the Presbyterian church will hold a valentine social in the vestry of the church on Friday evening, Feb. 14, at 7:30. Please notice that this social was postponed from Thursday to Friday evening.

The fire department was notified by telephone at three o'clock yesterday afternoon of a burning chimney in the residence of Angelo Scampini at Scampini square. A man with a hand chemical extinguished the blaze with no damage.

John Quilligan of Burlington pleaded guilty to a first offense of intoxication in the city court, this morning, and was fined $5, with costs of $7.90. He was unable to pay and went to the county jail for 30 days. He was arrested yesterday forenoon by Officer Hamel.

Miss Alice A. Pike, who has conducted the Pearl street millinery establishment, has closed her store, because of ill health, and desires to have all outstanding accounts settled at once. Settlements may be made with Louis Huntington at O. J. Dodge's jewelry store on Main street.

The ladies of the United Mission society of the Hedding M. E. church will hold a social with Mrs. E. O. Thayer at the parsonage Friday evening, February 14, to which all are cordially invited. A program has been prepared and refreshments will be served. A free will offering will be received. Come and help the ladies in the first social in the winter.

All those who took part or helped in the fair, "Charities of Her Sex," were royally entertained at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Cutler last evening. After a six o'clock tea, the time was spent in playing whist and in a social way, interspersed with music. A good time was enjoyed by all and all were glad they had chosen to tread the boards as Macbeth and others.

A meeting of the base ball fair committee was held last evening and settled up as far as possible the bills incurred, and as there are still bills which have not been presented, the exact amount that the association will receive from the fair could not be determined last evening. The total receipts of the fair were about $800, and it is thought that the net amount will be a little over $550. The meeting adjourned until after the fair at Montpelier, which begins Feb. 29, is over.

A chance of a lifetime! On account of Gilbertson's orchestra being obliged to cancel its engagement of February 20 and having extra men hired for this date and also for the 21st, it gives the dancers a chance to go to a dance Thursday evening, February 20, in the Woodmen's hall, Bolster block. This is the same orchestra that played for the hospital benefit. Now, if you danced after this music once, you will want to again; and if you never have, you surely will want to, for it is second to none. Now, remember, this is probably the only chance you will have this winter to hear this orchestra to as good advantage. Turn out and give the only musical organization you have in town a royal send-off.
